EDWARD FREEMAN, A. B. Principal.
SIRHU B. FREEMAN, Assistant.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The second Term of this Institution will commence November 20th, under the superintendence of Mr. EDWARD FREEMAN, A. B. The friends of this Institution design it to be permanent, and most ardently hope it will receive all that encouragement from the Public, which its merits deserve. The design of the Teacher in imparting instruction is to unite the useful with the agreeable. His plan of teaching is inductive. No Student is permitted to advance faster than he thoroughly understands. The branches taught are those which are usually taught in High Schools and Academies. The higher branches of Mathematics, and the Studies preparatory to admission into College, are particularly attended to. The Teacher will at all times, exercise a prudent supervision over the Morals and Manners of his Pupils. The undersigned have full confidence in the ability of the Teacher to instruct, govern and guide, Youth committed to his charge, and from a knowledge of his mode of teaching, do cordially lend their names, as pledges to the Public, for the confidence that shall be reposed in him.

Would You Believe That This Was Once Bellingham?

1. Imagine riding to school like this every day. This bus went from Hartford Ave. to Center School.
2. Center Post Office.
3. Assumption Parish Convent.
4. The Town Hall, Built in 1802.
5. Old Brick School House on South Main Street.
6. Would you believe this was the location of Wethersfield?
7. The North Bellingham Mill.

UNDERCLASSMEN

J U N I O R S

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: L to R: Mike Slason, Treasurer; Tricia McAneny, President; John Bibbo, Secretary; (Alison Flynn not pictured).

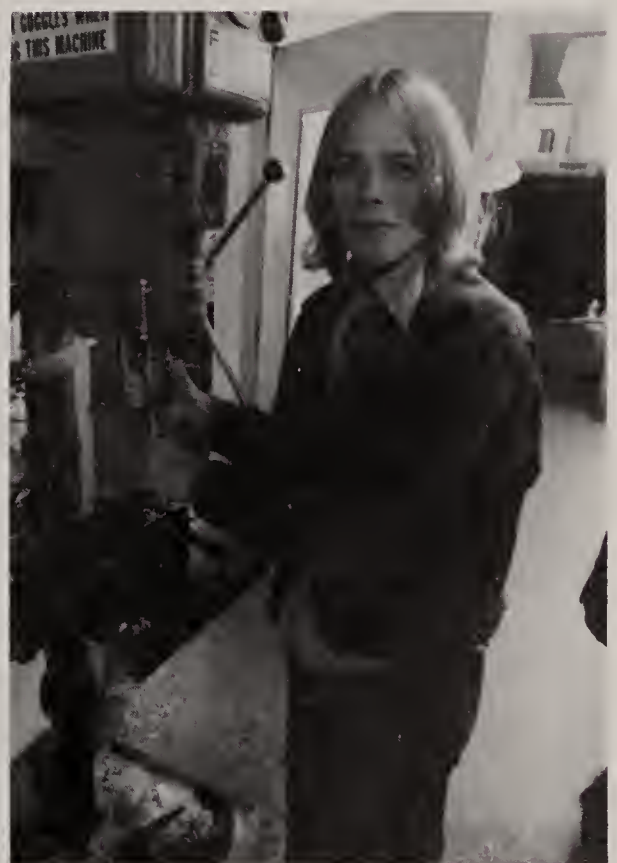

Good luck next year, Juniors. We realize that it takes a mighty powerful class to fill our shoes. We hope you can follow our act!

Are you gonna pass me now?

What's the answer?

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS: L to R: Lynne Brooks, Secretary; Sharon Guinta, Vice-President; Jean Costello, President; Robin Anderson, Treasurer.

As you slowly climb the ladder to seniority, watch your step because there will be pitfalls all the way. The Class of '76 didn't encounter too many. We hope you'll be as lucky as we were!

A future prom queen?

F R E S H M E N

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: Bottom — Top: Barbara Desimone, Secretary; Nancy Fournier, Treas.; Louise Goulet, Pres.; Bob Mallard, Vice-President.

How does it feel to be a rookie? We know it's not easy, but we wish you luck, and hope that your years at BHS will be as exciting as ours were.

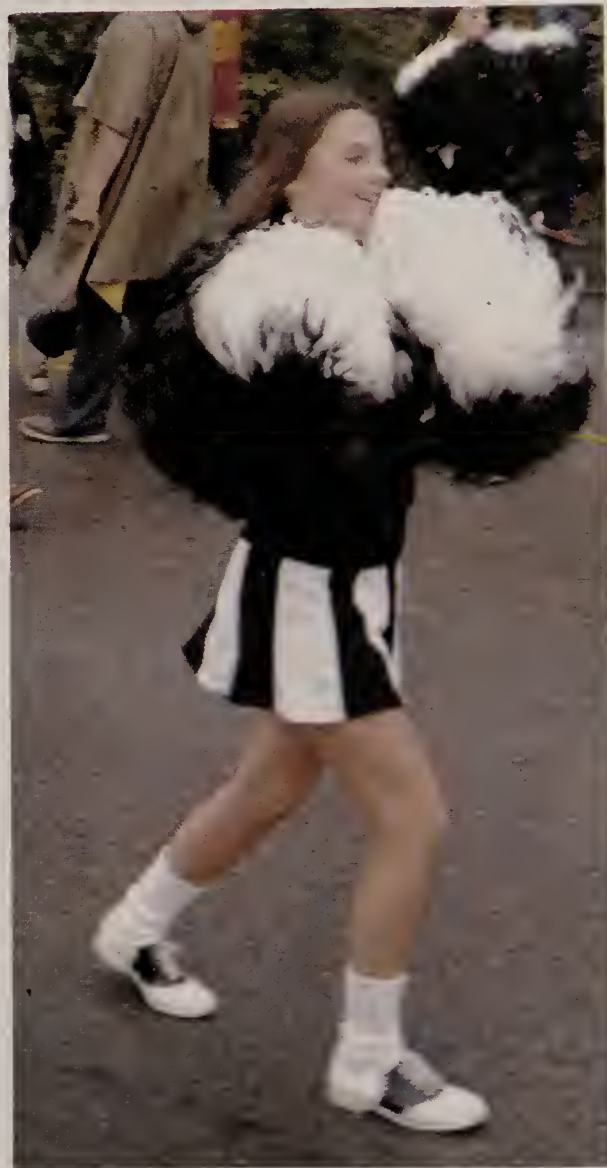

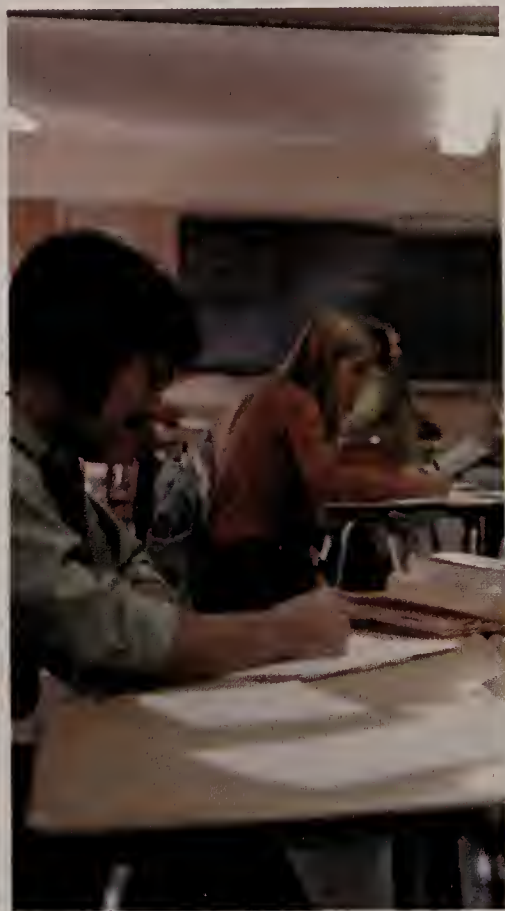

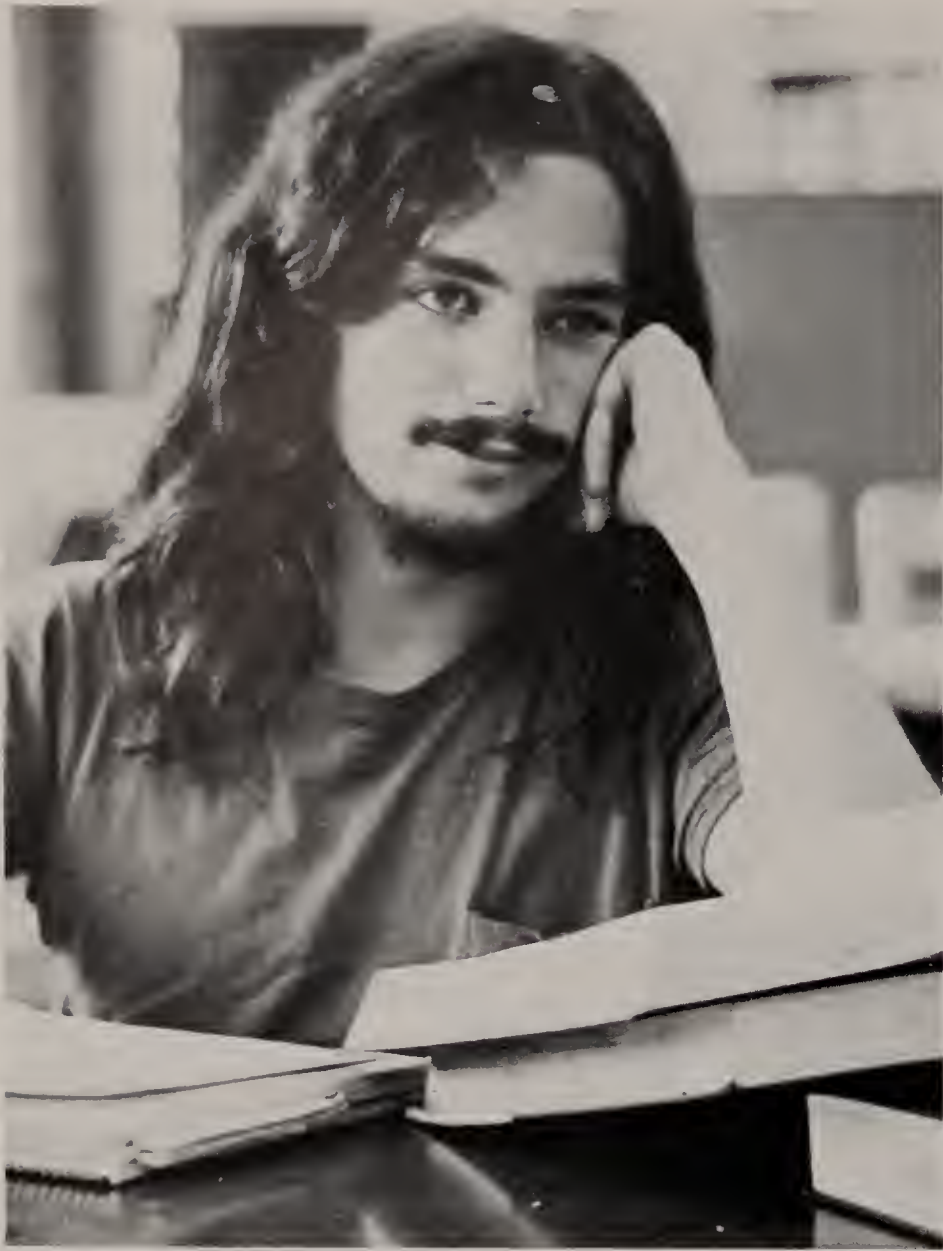

FRIENDS

I HOPE THE DAY WILL BE A LIGHTER HIGHWAY

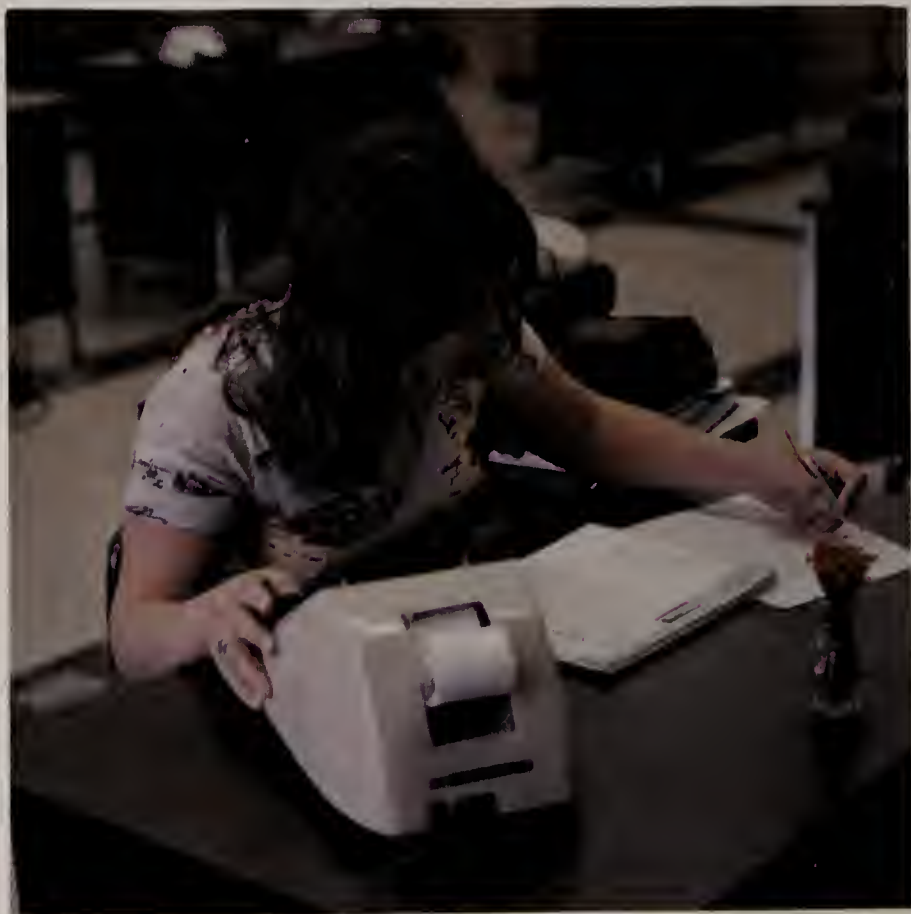

FOR FRIENDS ARE FOUND ON EVERY ROAD

CAN YOU THINK OF ANY BETTER WAY FOR THE LOST AND WEARY TRAVELERS TO GO?

MAKING FRIENDS FOR THE WORLD TO SEE

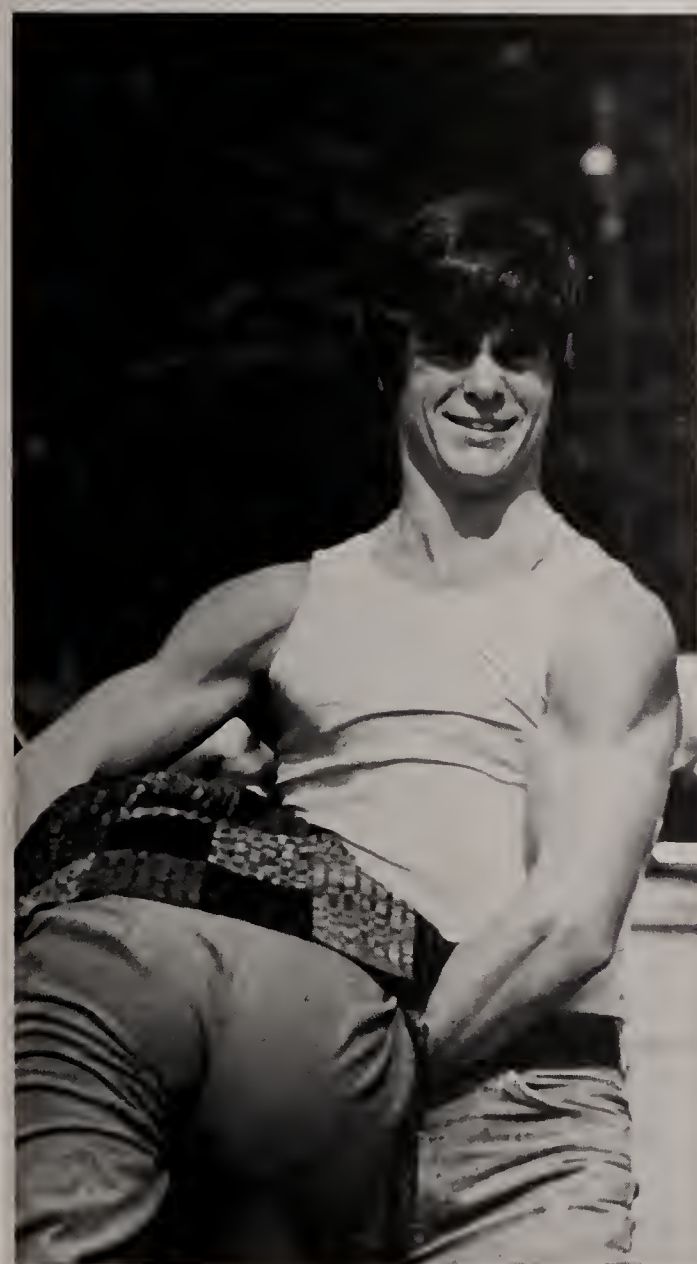

LET THE PEOPLE KNOW YOU GOT WHAT YOU NEED

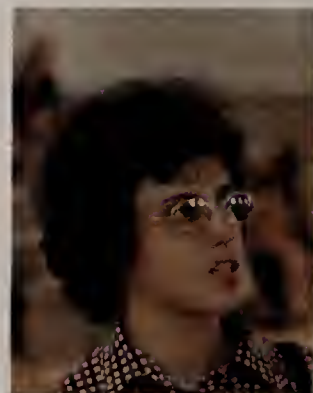

WITH A FRIEND AT HAND YOU WILL SEE THE LIGHT

THEN EVERYTHING IS ALRIGHT

IT'S ALRIGHT

SENIORS

Although Mr. Patenaude and Jeff are not with us any longer, we know that we could never forget nor ever replace them. To those who knew them well, they were very sincere people. Their strength and courage made their presence sought to many. To those who knew them slightly, they always had kind words and smiling faces. On this page of memories and in each one's personal remembrances may they live forever within us all.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

The Junior Prom . . .

Our Junior Prom was held on April 4, 1975 at Wright's Farm in Nasonville, RI. The theme song was "If" and the band was the Jerry Secco Band.

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT

Colleen Murphy (center) was chosen queen, while Denise Labonte (left) and Pam Slatkavitz (right) were chosen princesses.

Wait a minute, not me!

Am I doing this right?

You just knocked my hip out of socket!!!?

Who me?

The Junior-Senior Christmas Party

IT SEEMS TO ME A CRIME THAT WE SHOULD AGE,

THESE FRAGILE TIMES SHOULD NEVER SLIP US BY.

A TIME YOU NEVER CAN OR SHALL ERASE

AS FRIENDS TOGETHER WATCH THEIR CHILDHOOD FLY

Uncle Sam wants you!!

Chow-Chow!

Polly want a cracker?

Mommy's Christmas present

C-h-e-e-s-e!!!

What's happening man?

I'm gonna flunk.

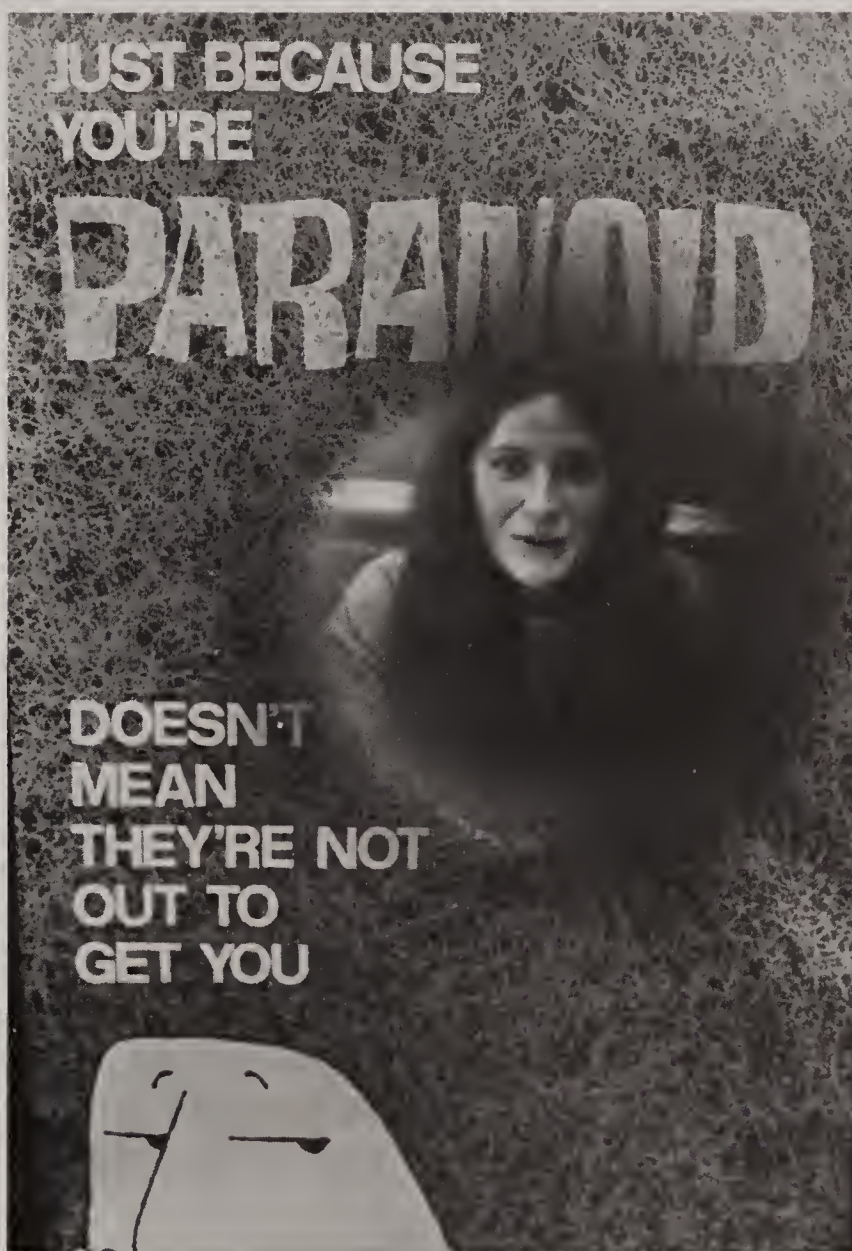

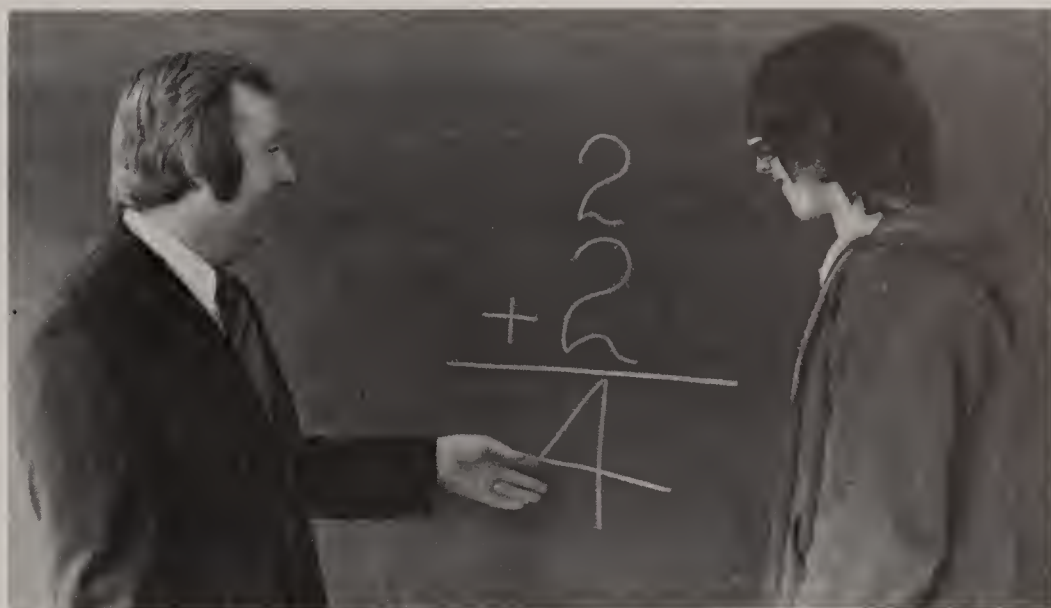

SENIOR SPOOFS

SENIOR CLASS BRASS: L to R: (Back) Debi Beadoin, Treasurer; Judi Provost, Secretary; Colleen Murphy, Vice-President; Ellen Smith, President.

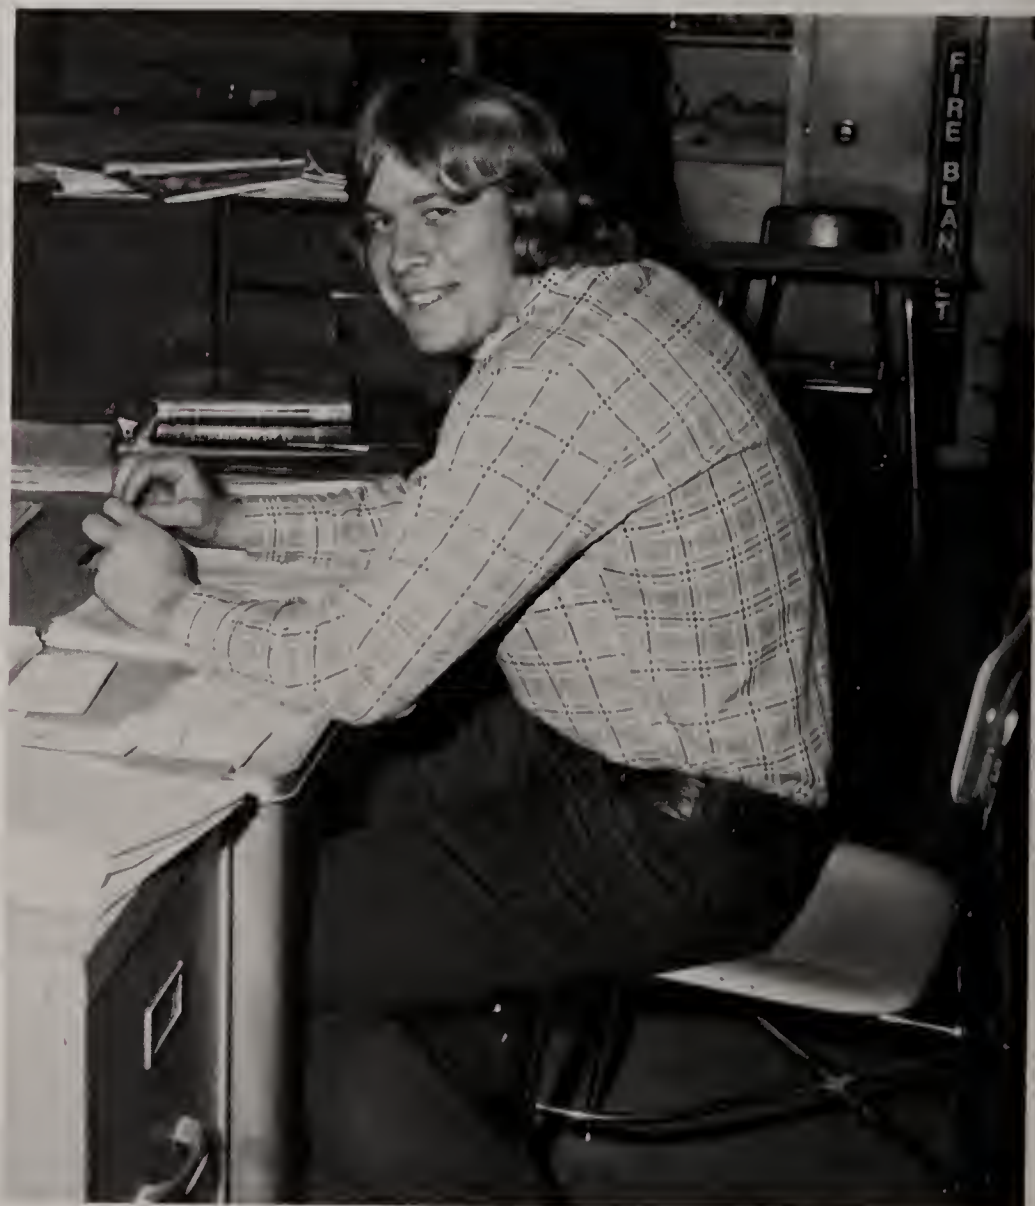

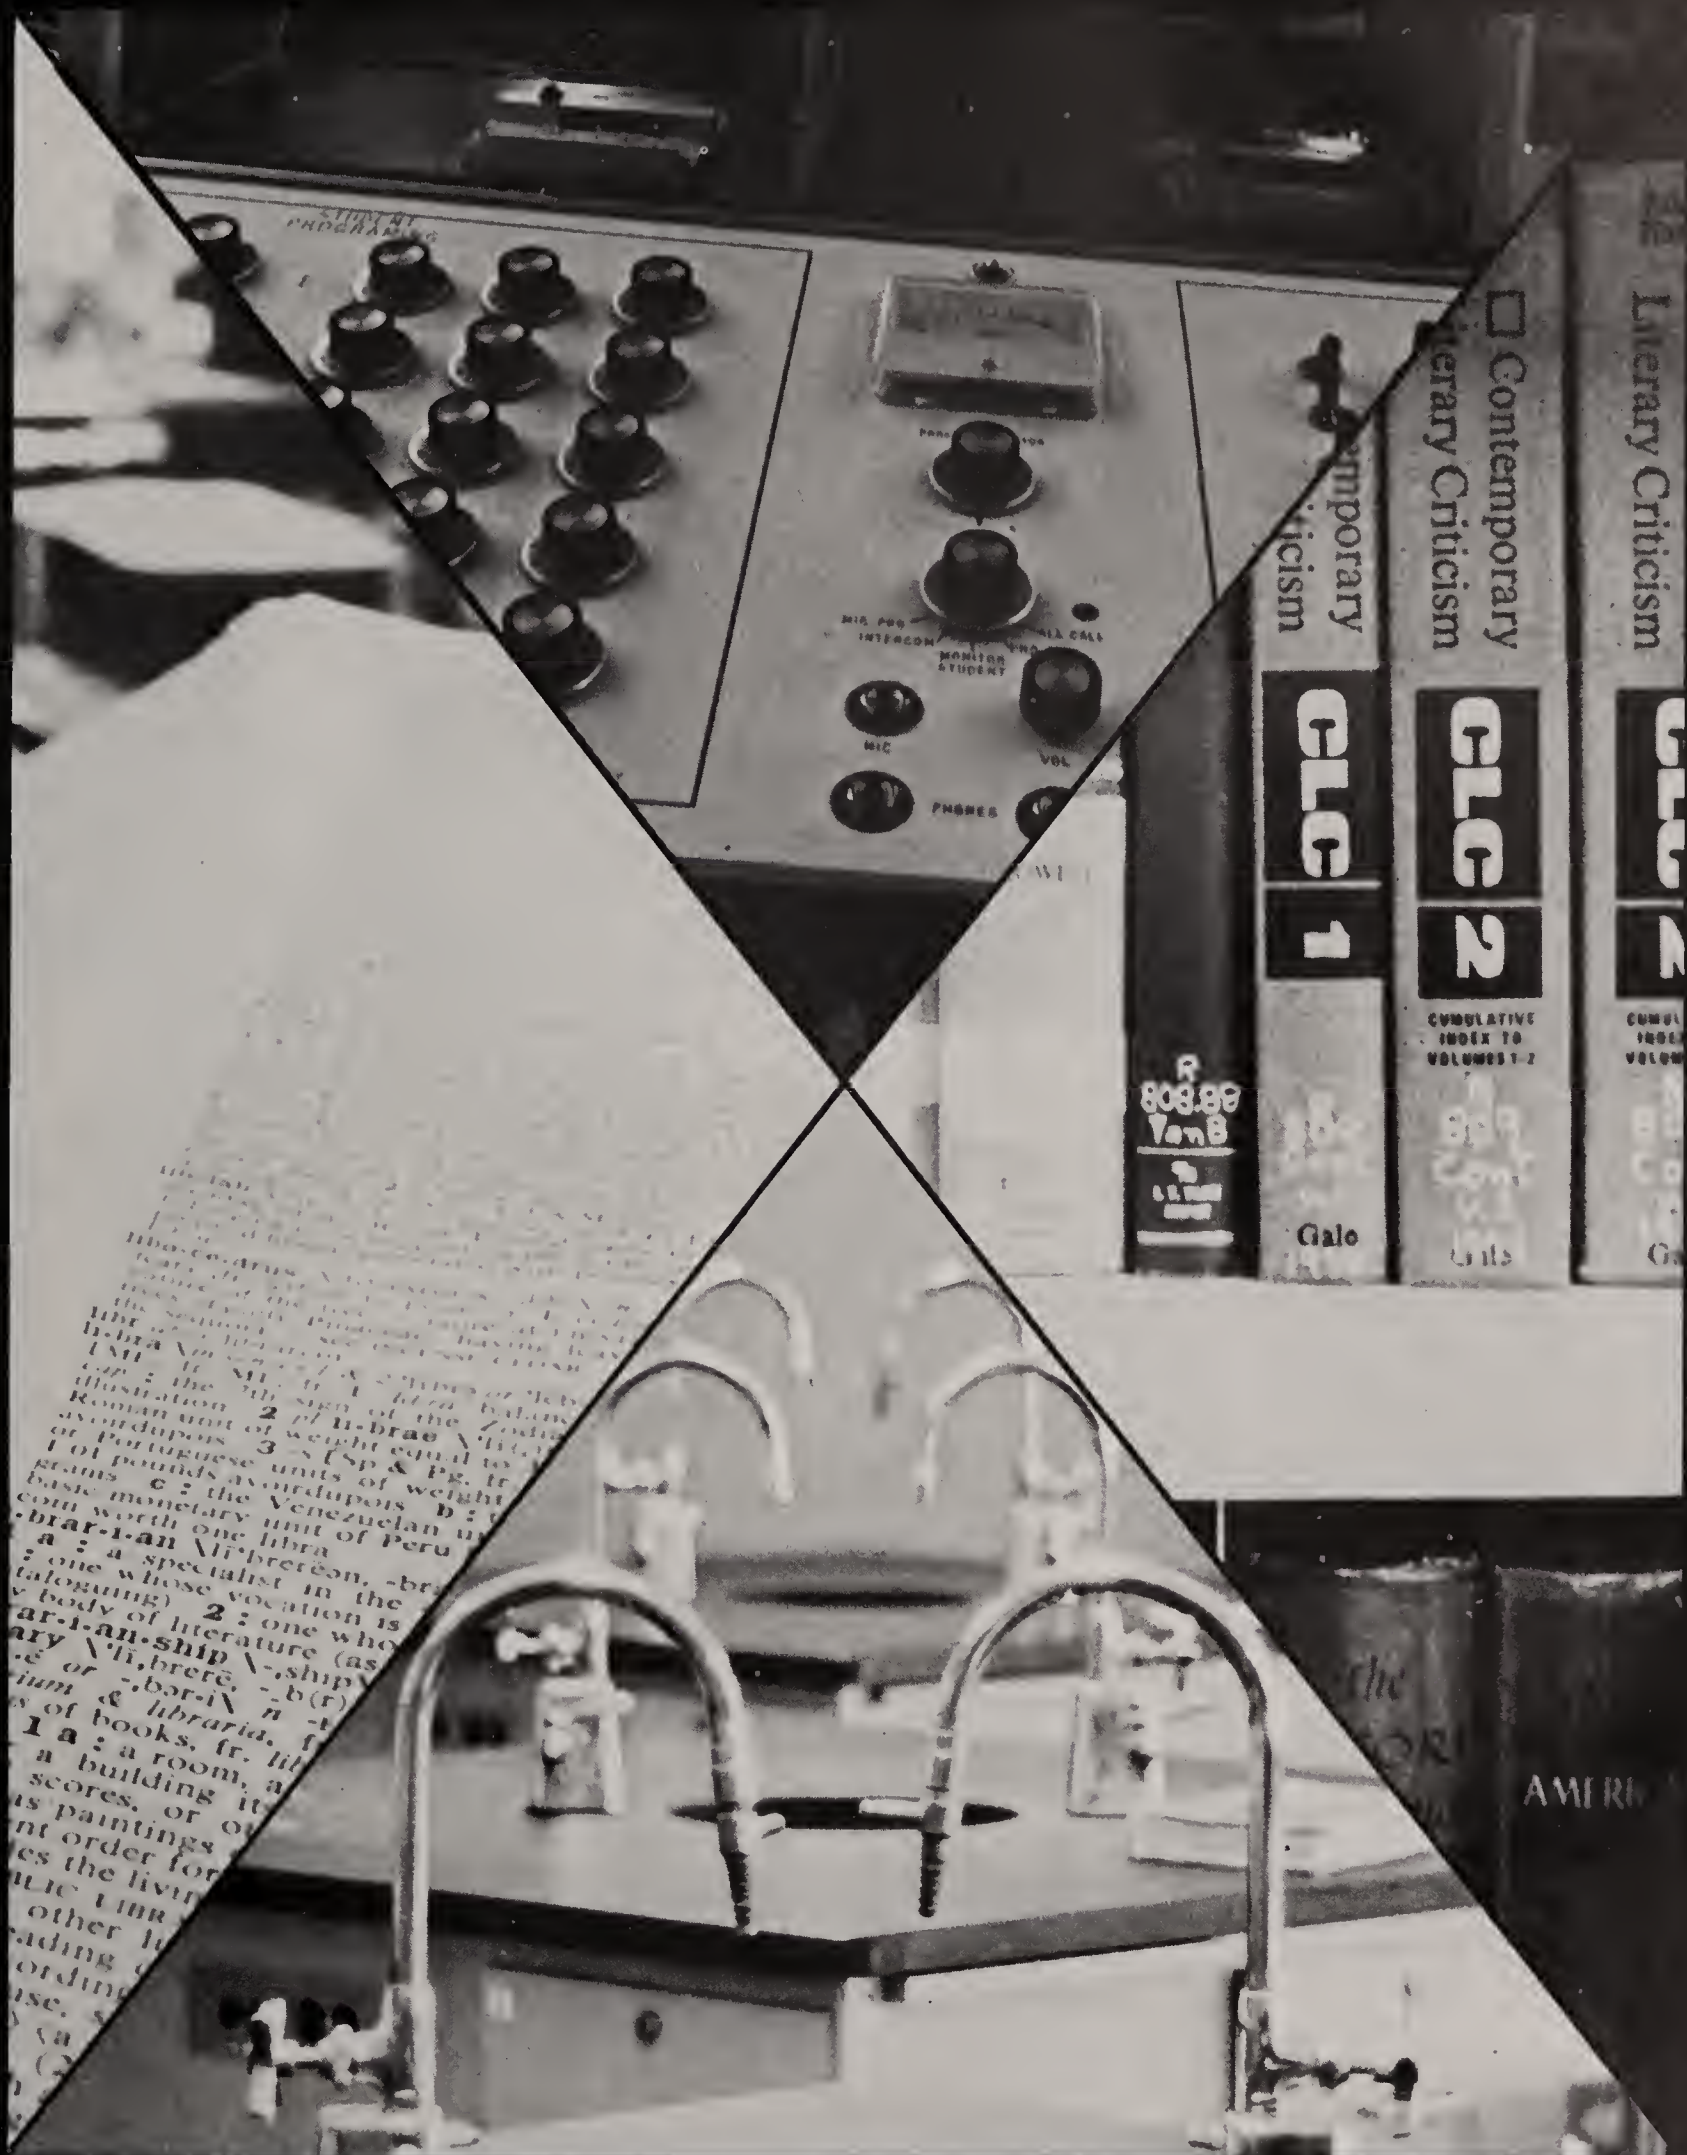

Mrs. Jeanne Valorie

On behalf of the class of 1976, we would like to thank Mrs. Valorie and Mr. Christie for being so tolerant these past four years. Their friendship and advice has helped to make our high school years at BHS very memorable.

Mr. Donald Christie
